 - Unintentional, Intentional Walk
 - 3.3.4.3.3 If a referee determines that a pitcher is unintentionally, intentionally trying to walk a batter, it will be the same as an intentional walk

- 3.4.3 The Catcher must always stay outside the kicking box until the ball is kicked.
 - 3.4.3.1 If the Catcher interferes with the kicker in the act of kicking or in proceeding to first base the play is dead and the kicker is automatically awarded first base.
 - 3.4.3.2 The Catcher can line up as wide as they want, as long as no body parts break the plane of the box or the perpendicular line extending from the box, denoted by the cone. (i.e. Catcher may not reach over into the field of play with any body part in an attempt to deflect or block a kicked ball)
 - 3.4.3.3 The hands of the catcher must not be extended horizontally before a ball is kicked.

 - 3.5.3.1 A Referee will signal obstruction at the point it occurs.
 - 3.5.3.1.1 If the obstruction causes the base runner / kicker to be called out the play is immediately dead and all base runners advance to the next base.
 - 3.5.3.1.2 If the obstruction did not cause any base runners to be called out all base runners are allowed one extra base once the play is dead.

3.5.4 Overthrows/Popped Ball

- 3.5.4.1 An Overthrow is defined as an errant attempt to throw to a defensive player in position to make a defensive play.
- 3.5.4.2 On an overthrow, the ball is deemed dead when it hits the fence, rolls onto concrete or otherwise results in a dangerous situation or goes further than 20 feet in foul territory from the nearest fielder. All runners are awarded one extra base, regardless of intent to advance or not.
 - 3.5.4.2.3 Overthrown balls that hit a referee or a base coach inadvertently are live as long as they meet criteria for 3.5.4.2.
 - 3.5.4.2.4 Overthrown balls that make contact with a player in either team's dugout are dead (re: dangerous). If the contact is with a member of the defensive team, the referee may award additional bases at their discretion. If the contact is with a member of the offensive team, runners will be returned to their previous base.
 - 3.5.4.2.5 An attempt to hit the base runner with the ball is not considered an Overthrow and is still considered live.
 - 3.5.4.2.6 If a throw contacts a base runner, the ball is still considered live.
 - 3.5.4.2.7 A ball that is purposely kicked by a defensive player is considered a live ball.
- 3.5.5 During any play in which the ball is popped, deflates, or in any way is noticeably altered, that play shall be ruled dead and replayed with a properly inflated ball.

- 3.6.1 Before the ball is kicked no Defender, including the Pitcher, may enter fair territory in front of the imaginary line made from 1st to 3rd base.
- 3.6.2 A team will be issued one warning before receiving a penalty for encroachment.
- 3.6.3 A Referee will signal encroachment at the time it occurs.
 - 3.6.3.1 After the play is resolved the kicking team captain may choose to a) accept the result of the play OR b) have the pitch count as a ball, and have all base runners advance 1 base from their position at the start of the play OR c) If no runner is on base, kicker has the option of going to second base.

- 3.7.3 A Baserunner may not interfere in any way with a Defender making a play on the ball. This includes touching, obstructing, yelling, intentionally touching the ball, or any other action at the discretion of the Referee which obstructs play. A baserunner who obstructs a fielder will be immediately called out.
 - 3.7.3.1 A Baserunner must avoid colliding with a defender when advancing to a base. Intentionally colliding with a Defender will cause the Baserunner to immediately be called out and subject to ejection from the game.
 - 3.7.3.2 One run shall be scored each time a runner legally advances to and touches first, second, third and home base before three players are put out to end the inning.
 - 3.7.3.2.1 A run does not score if a third out is made on the play in any of the following ways:
 - 3.7.3.2.1.1 The kicker-runner is putout before reaching first base.
 - 3.7.3.2.1.2 Any other runner is forced out on the play at either second base, third base or home base.
 - 3.7.3.2.1.2.1 A force out is defined as the putout of a base runner who is forced to go to the next base.
 - 3.7.3.2.1.3 A preceding runner is declared out on appeal for failing to touch a base.

3.7.4 Baserunning at 1st Base

- 3.7.4 A Baserunner may run past 1st base after kicking.
 - 3.7.4.1 Baserunners doing so must run past the base in a straight line and return to the base immediately.
 - 3.7.4.2 If the Baserunner at any time makes an advance towards 2nd base, they may be tagged out before returning to a base .
- 3.7.5 All Baserunners must touch the safety base when ONLY advancing to 1st base.
If the referee determines interference:
 - 3.7.5.1 Offending team receives a total of two warnings /reminders to run to the safety base.
 - 3.7.5.2 On third overall infraction, the referee can call an automatic out, which will be announced to both teams.
 - 3.7.5.3 Each infraction thereafter will result in an automatic out for the offending team.

3.7.6 Tagging Up on Fly Balls

- 3.7.6.1 A Baserunner may only advance on a caught fly ball once they tag-up.
- 3.7.6.2 A Baserunner must remain on their starting base until a Defender touches (not catches) a fly ball.
- 3.7.6.3 A Baserunner who does not return to their starting base when a fly ball is caught will be called out if the Defending team tags the runner with the ball or tags the starting base the runner occupies.

3.7.7 Pitcher Obtains Possession of Ball

- 3.7.7.1 The ball is dead and the play is over once the pitcher has the ball on the pitcher's mound within a 10 foot radius (Diagram 1).

3.7.7.1.1 Any baserunner more than halfway to the next base is allowed to advance.

3.7.7.1.2 Any baserunner halfway or less to the next base is allowed to return to the previous base safely.

3.8 Interference

3.8.1 Any interference with the ball in play results in a dead ball. The play is immediately over.

3.8.2 Any person, not playing or refereeing the game, contacting the live ball or hindering the fielder results in interference.

3.8.3 Any object that is not part of the Field (see 1.1), contacting the live ball or hindering the fielder results in interference.

3.8.4 If a Fielder throws or kicks the ball, and it makes contact with a player from the defensive team who is not in the field in that inning, the play is declared dead, and the runners all advance to the next base, regardless of an attempt to that base.

3.8.4.1 If the above occurs, but the ball strikes an offensive player currently uninvolved with the play AND that play was not already deemed an overthrow (i.e. base coach or player in dugout), the ball is dead and runners must retreat to the prior base. If the struck person is deemed to have intentionally touched the ball, the play is declared dead, the nearest runner is called out, and other runners must retreat to the previous base.

3.8.5 If a Fielder throws the ball into foul territory and out of play as deemed by the Referee, the play is called dead and all Baserunners advance ONE additional base beyond the base they were advancing towards.

3.9 Team Referees

Penalties for missing referee assignments are as follows:

4.0.2 Higher seed is the home team as determined by the regular season standings

Uneven Ratio Rule

4.0.2.1 If a team has fewer than 5 of any gender, they will not take any outs but will play down one in the field (on defense).

4.0.2.1.1 A team must have an equal gender distribution in the field defensively not to exclude 10 total players.

4.0.2.2 If there are fewer than 3 of any gender, the team will forfeit the game. Genders are denoted as male identifying and non-male identifying for the purposes of kickball.

4.0.2.2.1 Teams cannot play with fewer than 6 players on the field.

4.0.2.2.2 EXCEPTION: If a team that has enough players to begin the game and loses a player due to an in-game injury, the team is allowed to have an uneven amount of players and will not take an automatic out.

4.0.3.3 If a team is missing both referees, in their next game, they will forfeit kicking the whole first inning.

4.0.3.4 Whenever possible, the head referee should be from the team assigned to ref the game. If a ref is not from that team, the ref needs to be identified by both captains before the beginning of the game.

Sponsor Bar
